31.1 The Procurement Entity may take appropriate measures in respect of debarred renderer or contractor or supplier including one or more of the following, namely: _

- (i) Reject the bid and forfeit or encash EMD or Bid Security;
- (ii) Terminate the contract; forfeit or encash the performance guarantee; recover the compensation of loss incurred by procurement Entity;
- (iii) Forfeit or encash any other security or guarantee or bond provided by such Tenderer or contractor or supplier in relation to the such procurement; and
- (iv) Recover payments including advance payments, if any, made by the procurement Entity along with the interest thereon at the prevailing rate of Nationalized Bank.

32 Corrupt or Fraudulent practices

32.1 The Procurement Entity requires that Tenderer/ Suppliers/ Contractors observe the highest standard of ethics during the procurement and execution of Government contracts. In pursuance of this policy, the Government defines, for the purposes of this provision, the terms set forth as follows:

"corrupt practice" means the offering, giving, receiving or soliciting of anything of value to influence the action of the public official in the procurement process or in contract execution; and

"fraudulent practice" means a misrepresentation of facts in order to influence a procurement process or the execution of a contract to the detriment of the procurement Entity, and includes collusive practice among the Tenderer either prior to or after tender submission, designed to establish tender prices at artificial non-competitive levels and to deprive the procurement Entity of the benefits of free and open competition;

will reject a proposal for award if it determines that the Tenderer recommended for award has engaged in corrupt or fraudulent practices in competing for the contract in question; will declare a firm ineligible for a stated period of time, to be awarded a Government financed contract if it at any time determines that the firm has engaged in corrupt or fraudulent practices in competing for, or in executing, a Government contract.
