

As regard to the requirement as to when and what documents need to be submitted, by whom, it is detailed in the table below:

Spec. Clause #	Detail of the clause	Responsibility of Raw material manufacturer	Responsibility of Bidder or Converter/Authorised by the OEM
2.3.1	The Braille test printed on the stickers shall be certified by the National Association for the Blind (NAB) or equivalent or competent agency/organization of national or international repute and certificate enclosed.		Certified and verifiable documents to be supplied at the time of the prototype / bulk supply delivery.
2.3.2	Clause-wise compliance on the specification without which ICF/Railway reserves the right to summarily reject the offer.		To be supplied by the bidder along with the MoU with the raw material manufacturer as a part of the bid.
2.3.3	Deviation statements with respect to specifications, if any should be indicated against the relevant clause.		MoU with the raw material manufacturer as a part of the bid.
2.3.4	Supply credentials, performance reports and where used in Railway applications.		To be supplied by the bidder along with the MoU with the raw material manufacturer as a part of the bid.
2.3.5	Material safety data sheet and test result from NABL accredited lab or OEM test certificate.	Raw material manufacturer shall provide the reports of the type test to their authorized bidders and provide the MoU. These documents shall be verifiable.	To be supplied by the bidder along with the MoU with the raw material manufacturer as a part of the bid.

Handwritten signature

4.1	Reports for acceptance tests as per details in the clause.	Raw material manufacturer shall provide the reports of the acceptance tests to their authorized bidders as per their QAP and provide the MoU. These documents shall be verifiable.	To be supplied by the bidder (now contractor) as a part of the supply documentation. The contractor shall be duly authorized by the Raw material manufacturer to submit on their behalf.
4.2	Reports for type tests as per details in the clause.	Raw material manufacturer shall provide the reports of the type tests to their authorized bidders as per their QAP and provide the MoU. These documents shall be verifiable.	To be supplied by the bidder along with the MoU with the raw material manufacturer as a part of the bid.

*Apply
by 10/10/20*