Sub: Fixing responsibility of accidents occurring during to negligence of contractors.

It has been noticed that due to negligence of the field contractors accidents including derailment are taking place. Even though, railway supervisors are deputed to oversee various contractual works, it is the primary responsibility of the contractors to ensure that works are executed without any incident causing pecuniary losses to the railway. Suitable provision in the contract agreement should be incorporated to indemnify the railway against losses caused due to negligence of the contractors.

It is further mentioned that in all such incidents suitable LD shall be raised against the contractors involved.
