

Packing Instructions

The packaging material should be waterproof to effectively prevent the ingress of moisture. Ingress of water/moisture can lead to Rust which reduces the strength and durability of metal objects, increasing the risk of failure.