

Contract with the Purchaser or the Government pending finalisation or adjudication of any such claim.

It is an agreed term of the Contract that the sum of money or moneys so withheld or retained under the lien referred to above, by the Purchaser will be kept withheld or retained as such by the Purchaser till the claim arising out of or under the Contract is determined by any of the dispute resolution mechanism as indicated in the Contract or by the competent court as prescribed under Clause 2.7(c), as the case may be, and that the Contractor will have no claim for interest or damages whatsoever on any account in respect of such withholding or retention under the lien referred to supra and duly notified as such to the Contractor.

9.2 For the purpose of Clause 9.1, where the Contractor is a partnership firm or a limited company, the Purchaser shall be entitled to withhold and also have a lien to retain towards such claimed amount or amounts in whole or in part from any sum found payable to any partner/ limited company, as the case may be, whether in his individual capacity or otherwise.

9.3 Lien in respect of Claims arising from other Contracts:

- (a) Any sum of money due and payable to the Contractor (including the security deposit returnable to him) under the Contract may be withheld or retained by way of lien by the Purchaser or Government against any claim of the Purchaser or Government in respect of payment of a sum of money arising out of or under any other Contract made by the Contractor with the Purchaser or Government.
- (b) It is an agreed term of the Contract that the sum of money so withheld or retained under this clause by the Purchaser or Government will be kept withheld or retained as such by the Purchaser or Government till his claim arising out of the same Contract or any other Contract is either mutually settled or determined through dispute resolution mechanism as indicated in the Contract or by the competent court as prescribed under Clause 2.7(c), as the case may be, and that the Contractor shall have no claim for interest or damages whatsoever on this account or on any other ground in respect of any sum of money withheld or retained under this clause and duly notified as such to the Contractor.

10. Warranty/ Guarantee:

- (a) The Contractor hereby covenants that it is a condition of the Contract that all Goods furnished to the Purchaser under this Contract shall be of the highest grade, free of all defects and faults and of the best materials, quality, manufacture and workmanship throughout and consistent with the established and generally accepted standards for materials of the type ordered and in full conformity with the Contract specification, drawing or sample, if any and shall, if operable, operate properly.
- (b) The Contractor also guarantees that the said Goods would continue to conform to the description and quality as aforesaid, for a period of 30 months after their delivery and this warranty shall survive notwithstanding the fact that the Goods may have been inspected, accepted and payment therefore made by the Purchaser. If a longer/ shorter period of warranty/ guarantee is specified in the Particulars or any other Contract documents, same shall be applicable instead of period specified in this clause.

- (c) If during the aforesaid period, the said Goods be discovered not to conform to the description and quality aforesaid or have deteriorated, otherwise than by fair wear and tear, the decision of the Purchaser in that behalf being final and conclusive, the Purchaser will be entitled to reject the said Goods or such portions thereof as may be discovered not to conform to the said description and quality (by way of issue of "Warranty Rejection Advice"). On such rejection, the Goods will be at the Contractor's risk.

Upon receipt of such rejection notice, the Contractor shall, within 60 days, expeditiously repair or replace, at the option of the Purchaser, the defective Goods or parts thereof, free of cost, at the ultimate destination. Alternatively, the Contractor can also be called upon for deposition of equivalent amount of rejected Goods within the aforesaid period.

In case of any rectification of a defect or replacement of any defective Goods during the warranty period, the warranty for the rectified/ replaced Goods shall remain till the original warranty period plus the time from the warranty rejection advice to acceptance of Goods by Consignee after replacement/ rectification.

If the Contractor, having been notified, fails to rectify/ replace the defect(s) within 60 days (or within any other period, if stipulated in the Contract), it shall amount to Breach of Contract for warranty.

- (d) The Contractor shall be allowed to collect the rejected Goods only after deposition of payments already made by the Purchaser to the Contractor, if any, in respect of such Goods or after recovery of equivalent amount by the Purchaser from the pending bills of the Contractor or against replacement quantity supplied by the Contractor. Rejected Goods should be suitably defaced before handing over to the Contractor to avoid its re-use. The rejected Goods may be taken over by the Contractor or his agents for disposal in such manner as he may deem fit within a period of 60 days from the date of such rejection, by way of issue of "Warranty Rejection Advice". At the expiry of the period, no claim whatsoever shall lie against the Purchaser in respect of the said Goods, which may be disposed of by the Purchaser in such manner as he thinks fit. Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, all the provisions relating to the 'rejection of goods' and 'failure' and 'termination' and Clauses 4.2, 6.1, 7.6 and 13 shall apply.
- (e) Purchaser is entitled to provide for an authorized portal (as an extension of authorised e-procurement portal or otherwise) for management of warranty obligations, including monetary recoveries when due, under the Contract and also provide for detailed procedure for working of such a portal. Working procedure (as amended from time to time) of such a portal shall be binding upon the contractor and shall not be rendered ineffective merely on the ground that the same have not been specifically mentioned in the Contract documents.

- (f) Purchaser is entitled to effect due recoveries against warranty rejection advice from the Warranty Security Deposit, if the recoveries from pending bills of the Contractor is not possible.

11. Removal of Rejected Goods:

- (a) On rejection of all Goods submitted for inspection at a place other than the premises of the Contractor, such Goods shall be removed by the Contractor at his own cost subject as herein after stipulated, within 21 days of the date of issue of intimation of such rejection, except in case of Warranty Rejection Advice, where the period shall be 60 days. The communication will be deemed to have been served on the Contractor at the time when such communication would in the course of ordinary communication reach the Contractor through the means of communication used.

Provided that the Inspecting Officer/ Consignee may call upon the Contractor to remove dangerous, infected or perishable Goods within 48 hours of the receipt of such communication and the decision of the Inspecting Officer in this behalf shall be final in all respects.

Provided further that where the price or part thereof has been paid, the Consignee is entitled without prejudice to his other rights to retain the rejected Goods till the price paid for such Goods is refunded by the Contractor or dispose of as per sub-clause (b) below, save that such retention shall not in any circumstances be deemed to be acceptance of the Goods or waiver of rejection thereon.

- (b) All rejected Goods shall in any event and circumstances remain and always be at the risk of the Contractor immediately on such rejection. If such Goods are not removed by the Contractor within the periods aforementioned, the Inspection Officer/ Consignee may remove the rejected Goods and either return the same to the Contractor at his risk and cost by such mode of transport as the Purchaser or Inspecting Officer may decide, or dispose of such Goods at the Contractor's risk and on his account and adjust such portion of the proceeds, if any from such disposal as may necessary to recover any expense incurred in connection with such disposals (or any price refundable as a consequence of such rejection). The Purchaser shall, in addition, be entitled to recover from the Contractor ground rent/ demurrage charges on the rejected Goods after the expiry of the time limit mentioned above. Disposal of rejected Goods in aforesaid manner will not in any way exonerate Contractor but still hold him liable to pay to the Purchaser, the dues detailed under Clause 7.6(c) besides other dues as mentioned above and action can be taken by the Purchaser as per Clause 9, if Contractor fails to pay the amount due to him.

12. Breach of Contract by Contractor and Purchaser's rights thereof:

Breach of Contract by the Contractor refers to such situations where the Contractor fails to comply with conditions of the Contract. It discharges the Purchaser to proceed further with the performance of his Contractual obligations
