

Annexure D

List of Approved suppliers:

1. Materials / products of RDSO approved makes / suppliers currently valid at the time of consideration can be used for the work.
2. In addition to the above, the products which have been certified by Bureau of Indian Standards and provided with ISI mark are also acceptable.
3. The work shall be executed with materials strictly as per approved samples.
4. In cases of materials with ISI mark, these shall be borne with CML number.

Note: All materials used for the work shall conform to relevant specification and conform to the above requirements. In the event of any item which are not certified by Bureau of Indian Standards / provided with ISI mark are to be used for the work, sample of such material should be got approved by Engineer-in-Charge and only on approval such materials should be used for the work.